Our courses provide participants with professional guidance to EU Competition Law and Economics and with the essential tools to master legal complexities and successfully face the challenges in everyday work.

Opening key-note speech

Every year we invite an eminent speaker in the field of Competition Law and Economics to deliver an opening speech to inspire our participants and to foster the debate and discussion throughout the whole week ...and more.

In the recent past, our key-note speakers have been: Prof. Eleanor Fox (2017), Prof. Frédéric Jenny (2018), Prof. Francisco Marcos (2019), Mr. Ian Stewart Forrester (2020 and 2023), Mr. Giovanni Pitruzzella (2021), Mr. Alberto Pera (2022). Maria Pilar Canedo Arrillaga will hold the key-note speech this year.

Historical foundations and their relevance today

The historical foundations of Competition Law are essential to understand the current legal framework. The class presents the main aspects of the evolution of Competition Law and its policy in the EU since its origins.

Economic foundations and analysis

This advanced class aims to provide the participants with a practical understanding of how economics is used in antitrust law assessments. The class looks into the modern usage of economic tools for the enforcement of competition rules and will encourage active participation to foster the creation of an interactive environment.

Substantive law: Articles 101 and 102 TFEU

These two classes aim at analyzing the application of Articles 101 and 102 TFEU having in mind the latest case law and decisions from European and National Competition Authorities. The classes focus on complex legal, economic and practical issues related to the application of these rules.

Public Antitrust enforcement

This class aims at analyzing the dynamics of public enforcement in the European Union. Moreover, it focuses on specific procedural problems that arise in practice, adopting a practical approach.

Private Antitrust Enforcement & collective redress

The class provides knowledge and practical guidance on damage claims resulting from the infringement of EU Competition Law in pan-European cases. The class also focuses on collective redress and class action practices in Europe.

Advanced Merger Control

The aim of this class is to uncover the dynamics of Merger control rules in the European Union and give practical guidance on the assessment of complex transactions that trigger merger control communication, keeping in mind the recent developments both in the European Commission's practice and EU Courts case-law.

“How to do” sessions

These practical sessions give participants insights and guidance on i) antitrust compliance programs and internal audit (how to design, implement and update a compliance program in line with the best international practices - BIPAC - and how to carry out an effective internal audit) and ii) dawnraids (from the arrival of the inspectors at the premises of an hypothetical company under investigation to the management of the confidentiality issues related to the documents seized).

Foreign Investment screenings and Golden Power Laws

Thanks to the cooperation with the Osservatorio Golden Power this interactive session illustrates the Foreign Direct Investments screenings (FDI) in force in the EU and their impact on the flows of trade in (and within) the European Union. The class will discuss also recent case-laws and major legislative developments in the field discussing with participants the practical implications of those screenings in the conduction of the M&A transactions.

Moot Court

Participants working in teams will engage in a moot court: the oral hearing before the European Court of Justice in a high profile Competition Law case.

Hot topics in Competition Law & Economics - Outdoor classes

The classes provide an authoritative outlook of the main developments in Competition Law and Economics. Case law on European and national levels as well as relevant legislative developments and new trends in Competition law will be discussed with the participants. The classes will take place in our outdoor facility after an easy mountain walk, surrounded by a breathtaking scenario.

Cocktail-talks

Top experts from private practice, academia, business community and Institutions will discuss informally among them and with participants on hot topics related to Competition Law and Economics, leaving room for interventions and discussion from the audience.
